

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

DOUGLAS J. HORN,

Plaintiff,

-vs-

MEDICAL MARIJUANA, INC.,
DIXIE ELIXIRS AND EDIBLES,
RED DICE HOLDINGS, LLC,
and DIXIE BOTANICALS,

Defendants.

VOIR DIRE INFORMATION

Case No. 1:15-cv-00701

Defendants MEDICAL MARIJUANA, INC. (“MMI”) and RED DICE HOLDINGS, LLS (“RDH”) submit this Voir Dire Information pursuant to the Court’s order dated April 29, 2021 (Dkt. No. 174):

1. Short Description of the Case

This is an action brought plaintiff, Douglas J. Horn, to recover damages allegedly sustained when he was terminated by his employer after testing positive for THC. Plaintiff alleges that the positive THC test was caused by his consumption of a product called “Dixie X CBD Dew Drops 500 mg Tincture,” which was manufactured by defendant, Dixie Elixirs, sold by defendant, Red Dice Holdings, LLC, and for which defendant, Medical Marijuana Inc., provided management, investing and consulting services.

Plaintiff’s only remaining causes of actions against the defendants are those he has styled as “COUNT II – RICO VIOLATION” and “COUNT III – Fraudulent Inducement.” Plaintiff alleges that he consumed the product at issue while relying on representations made by the defendants that the product did not contain THC. Plaintiff alleges that the product did contain THC and it caused him to test positive for THC, resulting in termination from his employment. Plaintiff claims monetary damages against the defendants allegedly related to his termination.

Defendants have taken the position that the plaintiff cannot recover under these causes of action as he cannot prove that the product he consumed contained THC, that the product caused his positive test for THC, that defendants knew that the product contained THC, that the defendants knowingly misrepresented that the product did not contain THC, or that the plaintiff relied on representations that the product did not contain THC in deciding to consume the product.
